Roxbury - Dec. 21.

Dear Maria & Abby

I promised in my last journal to write you a long letter, but I have been so much occupied with company & other things that I have not had time to write you before. I have been intending to write you ever since I received your for a week before Garrison was there and there was an evening meeting which he did not attend as he came home on the last train of cars - Ah Dearmon the Sandwich Islander - who was you how to send us the things pertaining to the Fair - to Battle River - told you in the letter about the Indians - you know that Jones took many things to sell for us - we packed them & marked them, some they amounted to $100 - I took them in to Evans place - from [illegible] took & cheerfully undertook to take Caledonia - he arrived on the morning & brought us a letter from Lucretia & Annie from Florence - they were all running as usual & boys - Louis - Lincoln Morris & Porter - &

Herbert Grey to go from there back - She had been waiting for a party from Linn - they did not intend to go home - as the Westerners had been [illegible] severely off Thousands with it and started & this English residents were pushing South - they were within a day's ride of "Pleasant Grove" - but had little prospect of ever getting the [illegible] of the leaves The same opportunity brought me letter to Henry from Sam Collins - Mary has copy the letter to Jane to you - you will see it when [illegible] we were obliged to keep the original - Collins transmitted $95 - almost a thousand dollars - & if I understand he later, he sent more - I enter into no account of the letter for you will probably see it before you receive this - Two Rebels [illegible] I don't know the names of others are to start from Boston tomorrow The main body of letters books &c - are * not Caledonia but Columbia
